DIRECTOR'S NOTES

Winter Wonderland 2025

Tonight we are excited to share our first semester work with friends and family as we hope to 'i-NSPIRE' everyone with joyous holiday entertainment! We have welcomed Valencia Professor, Amyia Burrell, into our dance family who collaborated with myself in creating a new, non-traditional take on Nutcracker, 'Kracked Up!' It has certainly given us many laughs creating a new synopsis and brand new dances with costumes, so we hope you enjoy!

These two quarters have been filled with guest artist residencies from Robert Kelley in August and an ongoing semester of Flamenco with Flamenco del Sol. We were fortunate to have Jon Lehrer Dance Company, NY in September, and both Holly Johnston from CA and Open Space from OR in October. We also fit in a beautiful Blackbox performance in early November with Open Space while premiering Holly's Pocket Dances and Franco's Shadow Ego. We have had wonderful, ongoing collaborations with Gina Hatch for Jazz Production and Percy Nelson for Hip Hop along with a commercial collaboration with Zoey Cruz who created the short film, Bounce, for selected magnet. We are also grateful to have back with us this year, alumni, Ariaghna Parrilla Rey, who is our Dance Assistant, setting Epic, on our Company 2 dancers. Many thanks to all our guests and adjuncts for their incredible work!

In addition to all of our guest artists, Dance has taken part in the North Regional FDPA Assessment with straight superior ratings, ICON Park's Tree Lighting, Brookdale Senior Living Performance and FDM's November Convention. We also hosted the FDM Teacher Training and Scholarship Auditions and OPCS 's All County Auditions. Many congrats to Olivia Anderson, Claire Atwell, Eva Baez and Andre Roche for their All County Dance honors in Flamenco.

Tonight we share a favorite collaboration of the Dance Magnet with our own DPHS ESE pre-K students and theatre program. This has been a special treat for both the youngsters and the high school students ~ we hope you enjoy those cute faces in Santa Shimmy. The power of dance for all lives is limitless! Our Elective students are returning with a fun piece to warm your hearts, and our Assistant Teachers are going strong this year with each of their pieces as well as with their leadership in classes. Every Assistant Teacher has grown and become empowered with our teaching initiative.

With much gratitude, we want to thank our guest performers tonight: Amanda's Dance Center, Director Amanda Bell; Thornebrooke Elementary, Director Billie Jo Mustonen; and guest artist, Ellexis Hatch, who once again honors us with her artistry in Snow. This is thrilling for us to have our own alumni back as a working professional to share her gifts with the current DPHS dancers.

Please note our 'Dance in Motion' student Traveling Company is in the midst of preparing for the State Florida Dance Performance Assessment in Tampa in early February along with the Regional High School Dance Festival in TX at Texas A&M March 12-16, 2026. Tonight we will share five non-holiday works that we are filming for adjudication, so please remain seated until blackout between pieces.

We hope you feel the dancer's passion from the stage and that you discover a bit of holiday cheer. We also hope that a little dance makes the world a better place and you leave tonight with a smile as you go about your tasks in this 'Krazy World!'

ENJOY!!!
